shocked at our publication of Robert | the difficulty occurred between himself and say about his friend John Morrissey, who did more than any twelve men in the land to secure the nomination In view of this fact, Gov. Porter was furnof Tilden. Morrissey is a prize ished by friends with the weapon of defense fighter, and had his nose broken in in regard to which so much has been said. a prize fight several years ago. He is an open and notorious gambler, and everybody knows that is his profession, but the Democrats of New York, Samuel J. Tilden's intimate associates, sent him to Congress a few years ago. He attended the St. Louis Convention, and was one of Tilden's special friends in that ve of patriots, and is a great favor, of the thick and thin Democracy of "junior editor" stripe.

EXORBITANT *SOUTHERN CLAIMS. A large number of persons in East Tennessee have just claims due them from the Government. This class of persons, and in fact all persons, are medicine that is more happily adapte deeply interested in the subject of war claims. We have stated on more than one occasion, that there are they do not wrench the system of thousands of person in the South who In cases of gout, rheumatism, kidne did everything in their power to break disease, torpid bowels, indigestion up the Government, who entertain ties are truly wonderful. PORTER'S PISTOL PRACTICE ELUCIDATED.

From a special to the Tribune of yesterday, we are pleased to learn that Gov. Porter, or his friends for him, feel the necessity of some explanation of his conduct in attempting to draw a pistol on Col. Thomas at Shelbyville. We should regret very much to believe that the people of Tennessee would look with any degree of allowance on a man who fills the high office of Governor and aspires to re-election, who would make such a disgraceful public exhibition of himself as to draw a pistol with which to enforce his arguments. We shall rejoice to know that the Governor has been misrepreated, and will embrace the very ear-at opportunity to set him right when hink we can truthfully, for his ace is to a certain extent the disgrace of the State. We sincerely trust that some better explanation will be given than that foreshadowed by an editorial paragraph in yesterday's Tribune, which says:

"The charge that Gov. Porter is traveling armed through the State in this canvass is not true. We learn from a source altogether reliable that Gov. Porter was in-THE pious junior editor who is so formed at Shelbyville, the other day, before Ingersoll's speech, has not a word to Mr. Thomas, that the latter gentleman had expressed his intention to denounce him at that appointment, despite any trouble which such denunciation might provoke. The Governor expected to be assaulted from what he had heard, and the attempt

This is entirely too thin. It will require something more than this to justify the undignified and highly improper demonstrations with which our Governor has been credited on the occasion referred to.
